

Honorable Eugene A Cook
Justice The Supreme Court of Texas

Dear Justice Cook:

I left the practice of law in 1983 because it had become a "hambo" a "hired gun" profession. Reading the "Texas Lawyers Creed - A Mandate for Professionalism" stirred in me that lost desire to return to the practice of law. I don't know whether that can happen. But I do know that the young lawyers in Texas will have an opportunity to be proud of being a lawyer. Good luck.

Sincerely,

Stephen W. Dodger
